

Estimating cost of production & Tools for risk assessment

Klamath Basin Research and Extension Center

OSU Oregon State UNIVERSITY

How Much Risk Is Right For You?

The USDA's Risk Management Agency and OSU KBREC invite you to learn strategies for better managing risks in your operation. Participate in Estimating Cost of Production: to estimate enterprise cost of production, breakeven prices and risk exposure using RightRisk enterprise analysis tools.

Thursday, April 3rd 2014

10:00 a.m. - noon

Klamath Community College - Bldg #6 Rm H138
7390 South 6th Street, Klamath Falls OR

Program #1

Ag Risk-5 and tools available for managing risk on Farms and Ranches in Oregon

John Hewlett, Ranch/Farm Management Specialist, University of Wyoming

Estimating Breakeven Cost of Production for Your Operation

John Hewlett, Ranch/Farm Management Specialist, University of Wyoming

Program #2

Thursday, April 3rd 2014 - 2:00 to 3:30 p.m.
Klamath Community College - Bldg #6 Rm H228

Tools to Evaluate Risk for Your Enterprises & Entire Farm: The Enterprise Risk Analyzer, and More . . .

Jay Parsons, Risk Management Specialist, Colorado State University

Wrap up: Where do we go from here?

John Hewlett and Jay Parsons

Register to attend by contacting:

Keely Moxley - OSU KBREC

541-883-7131 - keely.moxley@oregonstate.edu

